Gathering #865/Livestream #85

Season: Pentecost

Series: FULL Sermon: Thoughtful

You're like an oven...

Jesus withdrew

"often"

"at daybreak"

"as usual"

Jesus' pattern of withdrawing is connected to:

Thoughtful

On thinking

On being full

Final thoughts

discuss & respond:

- Do you gravitate toward more private (ie: silence and solitude) or public (singing with others) spiritual practices? Why?
- Share a comment about the bread/oven story.
- Luke 5:16: "Jesus often withdrew to lonely places and prayed." Why do you think he did that? Why should you do that?
- Nate contrasted "thoughtful" Christians with "reactive" Christians. Which of your habits are pushing you toward being more thoughtful or reactive?
- Nate contrasted being filled with self with being filled with God. What do you need to do to be more full of grace and truth?
- What's your main "take away" from this sermon?
