Sermon: God in the Mundane

Luke 1:39-45

Mary's submission (and our submission) to God is not a one time thing, but it is an _____.

About the Mundane

There are things we can and should embrace about the mundane.

1.

2.

3.

Truth can be seen in the ordinary moments when we are coming from a place of _____.

Prayer of Examen

1. Ask for God's Grace
2. Give Thanks for the Gifts Received
3. Recognize my Faults
4. Ask for Forgiveness
5. Look Toward Tomorrow

WHAT'S NEXT?

Christmas Compassion Plan

Each year as we approach Christmas, it is our privilege to support local and international organizations doing important, restorative work.

This year we're raising funds for two organizations: AIM, which provides homes for the previously trafficked in Cambodia and Acres of Hope, which provides homes for the previously homeless in Placer County.

Please consider giving to Emmaus' 2021 Compassion Plan.

Christmas Eve

We're hosting TWO GATHERINGS on Christmas Eve, at 3p and 4:30.

(Both gatherings will also be live-streamed).

Questions for further discussion:

- What helps your awareness of the truth that God is in the everyday moments?
- What are some of the normal day-to-day things that can serve as distractions?
- What are the things you notice as gifts in the mundane?
- Do you practice affirming those you live with? What do those affirmations look like in your home?
