Questions for further discussion:

- Share one thought or question about the sermon.
- How would you characterize Elijah's attitude during the battle with the prophets of Baal (1 Kings 18:21-39)
- Read 1 Kings 19:1-5. How do you understand what happened to Elijah? What changed?
- What would some of your common responses to be the question, "What are you doing here?"
- Why do we imagine God as angry or resentful toward those who run away? Where does that idea come from? (Certainly not Luke 15 or 1 Kings!)
- Why do we typically looking for God in the dramatic and exceptional rather than in simple provision or the "sound of silence?"
