

SUNDAY @ EMMAUS

4.24.22 Gathering #890/Livestream #110
Season: Easter Series: The Good Life
Sermon: Learning The Good Life

Whom do you admire?

· ·
· ·

Who has your ear?

· ·
· ·

"You learned how to live from _____"
-----"

- Dallas Willard, Divine Conspiracy, p. 272

Discipleship

What about following someone else is challenging?

Four contrasting images about learning the Good Life from Jesus (Matthew 7:13-27):

1.

2.

3.

4.

Today:

Join us for the baptism of Lincoln Brown and Liam Kratz at the American River Confluence at 2p. (Search "Auburn State Park Kiosk" on Old Foresthill Road). There is a $10 fee to park.

Tuesday Evenings in May:

The Foundry Youth Center is sponsoring a short series of parenting workshops featuring local experts who are also neck-deep in the parenting journey. Tuesdays in May, 7-8p, at The Foundry.

June 5: Summer Baptism at the Lester's Home in Roseville
email Angela@Emmaus.Church

June 17-19: Emmaus Family Campout at Scott's Flat
email Angela@Emmaus.Church

Continuing Next Sunday:

THE GOOD LIFE
A RESURRECTION SERIES

Questions for further discussion:

- Re-consider the opening questions of the sermon. Who has taught you how to live?
- Is Willard's claim that "we learn how to live from someone else" something you're cognizant of or do you mostly feel like you're figuring things out on your own?
- Share your experience with discipleship.
- What about following someone else is most challenging for you?
- Re-read and comment on each of Jesus' contrasting images in Matthew 7:13-27.