Questions for further discussion:

- How would you have defined "the good life" before this series? How do you think most people define it these days?
- What's one thing that this sermon prompted in your own mind and thoughts?
- Is it reasonable or helpful to distill the Bible to the 6 C's?
- Is the idea of repentance as a simple "change of mind" helpful? Why or why not?
- Re-read Romans 12-12. What does this say about "the restoration of all things" and "the good life"?
- What is a specific area of your life that needs to be "restored" in this season?
