"Christ taught you to suffer, and he did so by suffering himself. Words would not be enough unless examples were added. And how precisely did he teach us, brothers and sisters? He was hanging on the cross, and the Jews were raging...he was hanging there, yet at the same time he was healing them."

DID YOU KNOW?

Each week we email a newsletter informing the church community of important events and church news.

The bread we use for communion is always gluten-free.

The candles in the back are a tool to aid in prayer. You may find it helpful to connect something physical to prayer.

Questions for further discussion:

- Do you see yourself as being called? What does that look like?
- Does knowing that we are called to be daughters and sons of God change how you view yourself? How?
- What is most challenging to you as you seek to follow in the footsteps of Christ?
- While Peter acknowledges that we are "exiles", he also says we can live as free people. What does that look like in your life?
- How do some use their freedom as a cover-up for evil?
