

SUNDAY @ EMMAUS

1.15.23 Gathering #928/Livestream #148

series: Yes, You Can Pray That sermon: part 3: Asaph's Questions

Psalm 77 (p. 406)

Help

(An observation about us and the Psalms)

Asaph's Distress (vs. 1-5)

Asaph's Questions (vs. 6-9)

Is God _____?

Does God _____?

Is God not _____?

Has God _____?

Is God _____?

Asaph's Appeal (vs. 10-20)

What is my story?

WELCOME!

We'd love to get connected!
Please use your phone camera to scan this code if you'd like to share your contact information.

REGISTER: WOMEN'S RETREAT

Registration is now open!
March 3-5, 2023 at Camp Del Oro in Nevada City, Ca.

TODAY

- The new "emmaus footnotes" podcast season continues with daily readings and reflections on the first 30 psalms. Available on Spotify or Apple Podcasts.
- As a community we're reading a psalm a day together. Today is January 15 so we're reading Psalm 15.

NEXT

- 1.22: January Membership Class after the 11a
- 1.29: Annual Meeting: A celebration of God's goodness in 2022 (at both 9 and 11)
- 2.5: New to Emmaus lunch (12:20 upstairs)
- 2.22: Ash Wednesday gathering

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR THIS WEEK'S HOME GROUPS:

- Read/pray Psalm 77.
- What was the most helpful piece of this sermon for you?
- Can you relate to the emotions reflected in vs. 1-5? When have you experienced seasons like this?
- Consider Asaph's questions. With which do you most resonate? Share a comment about one or more of his questions.
- Share a comment about Asaph's appeal. Have you ever found comfort for your future from your past? How so?
- How might you understand your story as part of God's story? In what "chapter" of God's story might we read about you?