

SUNDAY @ EMMAUS

1.22.23 Gathering #929/Livestream #149
series: Yes, You Can Pray That sermon: part 4: All My Inmost Being, Praise

Yes, You Can Pray That!

Psalm 103 (p. 417)

Reasons for Praise (vs. 2-12)

List a few of your own reasons for praising God:

God as Good Parent (vs. 13-18)

Well Warranted Praise (vs. 19-23)

Who are the psalms for?

WELCOME!

We'd love to get connected!
Please use your phone camera to scan this code if you'd like to share your contact information.

TODAY

- Membership Information class and lunch at 12:30 today, upstairs in the Loft.
- The new "emmaus footnotes" podcast season continues with daily readings and reflections on the first 30 psalms.

HOW TO READ THE BIBLE: 4 WEEK CLASS

Registration is now open!

REGISTER: WOMEN'S RETREAT

Registration is now open!
March 3-5, 2023 at Camp Del Oro in Nevada City, Ca.

NEXT

- 1.29: Annual Meeting: A celebration of God's goodness in 2022 (at both 9 and 11)
- 2.5: New to Emmaus lunch (12:20 upstairs)
- 2.22: Ash Wednesday gathering
- 4.7: Good Friday Prayer
- 4.9: Easter Sunday!

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR THIS WEEK'S HOME GROUPS:

- Read/pray Psalm 103.
- What line from this psalm challenges or comforts you?
- What was the most helpful part of the sermon for you?
- Would you share one of your reasons to praise God?
- Does the "good parent" metaphor for God help you? If so, how? If not, is there another "image" of God that you find more helpful?
- Respond to verses 19-23. How might you put these ideas in your own words?
- How is our community's emphasis on the psalms affecting you so far?
- What is the main idea from this psalm/sermon that you want to carry with you today?