Tony Kirk worked in restaurant management and real estate. He has served churches in various roles. At Emmaus he serves on the pastoral care and communion teams. Tony and Lynda have been part of Emmaus since 2017. Passionate about neighboring, the Kirks strive to be missionaries in their neighborhood in Lincoln.

Scott Nielsen retired four years ago after holding various management positions with The Sacramento Bee newspaper, County of Sacramento, and the State of California. Scott serves on the pastoral care and greeting teams. He and Lynn have been married for 42 years. They have one daughter, Renae, who has special needs. The Nielsens have been part of Emmaus since early 2021.

Bill Settlege works as a Business Process Architect in managed healthcare and previously in the tech industry, helping leaders solve problems and improve their business. He has served churches in various capacities. Bill and his wife of 30 years, Ida, provide hospitality at New to Emmaus and Membership classes and more. They have two sons and a wonderful daughter-in-law.
