

SUNDAY @ EMMAUS

08.13.23 Gathering #959/Livestream #179

How to Be Angry, part 5:

Turning Tables and Slicing Ears

Moving away from _____ reaction and toward _____ response.

"Anger dynamics"

A _____

A _____

A _____

A _____

Two stories

1. Turning Tables (Matthew 21:12, Mark 11:15, Luke 19:45, John 2:15)

2. Slicing Ears (Matthew 26:51, Mark 14:47,
Luke 22:50, John 18:10)

I should do something. What should I do?

. I should remember, I am not ...

. I should work for justice, but my actions should be _____ not _____.

. I should be against _____ but not against
_____.

. I should defend others in ways that are in line with the _____ and _____ of God.

WELCOME!

We'd love to get connected!
Learn more at Emmaus.Church.

WHAT'S NEXT?

- TODAY: 8.13 Back to School Pool Day:
4th-12th grade families | McBean Pool, 1-4p
- 8.30 Youth Ministries Wednesday Nights
begin! 6:30p at the Theater
- 9.15 New to Emmaus
- 10.1 Membership Info Meeting
- 10.15 Fall Baptism
- 10.22 Women's Brunch

THE FOUNDRY ON CAMPUS

The Foundry Youth Center begins its 9th year of serving students in Lincoln by moving ON CAMPUS at Glenn Edwards Middle and Lincoln High. We're looking for volunteers to help us start strong!

Please email

Natasha@foundrylincoln.org today!

GOOD TO KNOW...

We use gluten-free bread and alcohol-free juice for Holy Communion.

We're always adding new titles to our book store (off of the cafe) which we sell at cost. Visit today!

Emmaus is part of a world-wide family of churches called The Church of the Nazarene, which includes local churches, schools, and hospitals in over 160 world areas. Check out Nazarene.org.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME GROUPS

- What's the difference between a reaction and a response?
- Comment on the four "anger dynamics."
- Review and comment on the two stories. How do these challenge/instruct you?
- Which of the four concluding ideas feels like helpful, faithful guidance?
- What further questions do you have about anger and righteousness?

Nathan Oates 8.13.23