

SUNDAY @ EMMAUS

5.21.23 Gathering #947/Livestream #167

series: Come, Lord Jesus

sermon: Have Mercy on Us

Come, Lord Jesus series recap:

Jesus comes and gives:

because...

The concept

The distinction

text: Luke 10:25-37 (p. 725)

The "expert's" true desire

Jesus tells a story in response:

The "expert's" (wrong) question:

A better question is:

For a powerful and thought-provoking read on the Good Samaritan story's key role in the history of slavery in America and its present ramifications, see Reparations by Duke Kwon and Gregory Thompson.

WELCOME!

We'd love to get connected!

THE FOUNDRY: ON CAMPUS

We're opening two new Foundry Youth Center Locations in August on the campuses of Glen Edwards Middle and Lincoln High schools!

We're celebrating the provision of funds to support this critical ministry to our city's youth.

- $2,038 raised through "Pedaling for a Purpose" 800 miles in 8 days bike ride!
- $30,000 grant from Sacramento District Church of the Nazarene!
- $102,000 grant from Western Placer Unified School District!

A PSALM A DAY

We're reading and praying a psalm each day. Go to adailypsalm.com/emmaus to stay on track. Today's psalm: #141.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

- Share an initial response - a question or a comment - to Sunday's sermon.
- Share a story of experiencing God's love and mercy through another.
- Re-read Luke 10:25-37, pausing occasionally for comments.
- Consider and comment on the five-part definition of love as understood through Jesus' story of the Good Samaritan.
- What personal opportunities to show love/mercy come to your mind?
