HOME GROUP QUESTIONS:

- In general, how would you describe your experience of the church?
- Which "scandal" of the Church do you find most difficult, attractive, or compelling?
- How might the Church experience greater empowerment by God to bring transformation to the world?
- What are some of our fantasies that hinder genuine community in the Church?
- Do you agree with the statement that "the church is not the people we want to be with but the people God gives to be with us"? How might this shape or re-shape your thinking about the church?
