

Begin with the end.

Consider various views.

What does Christianity claim?

Ephesians 1:3-10 [p. 814]

elements of the end

- .
- .
- .
- .

a Christian world view

- .
- .
- .
- .
- .
- .

If embraced, what is the practical consequence?

WELCOME TO EMMAUS

We're so glad you're here!
Scan here to get connected:

---

FURTHER READING:

The current sermon series is based on the book A Thoughtful Gospel, by Drs. David Timms and Mark Moore. This book is available for purchase in our bookstore for $5.

Check out the bookstore for a variety of additional resources!

---

WHAT'S COMING UP?

- 03.02: Annual Meeting (at 9 and 11)
- 03.05: Ash Wednesday: 6:30, Theater
- 04.16: NO Youth Groups (Holy Week)
- 04.20: Easter Sunday
- 05.14: Final Youth Group of Semester
- 05.18: Baptism
- 05.18: Emmaus 20th Anniversary Party

---

HOME GROUP QUESTIONS:

- Do you often “begin with the end in mind” or “figure it out as you go?”
- How do these two approaches practically affect the process?
- Read and discuss Ephesians 1:3-10.
- Make a list of key words from this passage.
- What kind of “picture” is Paul “painting” with this opening summary of his message?
- How does the Christian worldview we’ve presented in this series challenge/encourage the way you’re seeing life and the world?