

Gathering #1068/Livestream #288
September 14, 2025
Series: The Stronger One
Sermon: Sheep Without a Shepherd

The most interesting question:

Mark chapter 6 (p. 816)

. hometown

. mission trip

. John the Baptist

. change of plans

Three critical contrasts:

.

.

.

WELCOME TO EMMAUS

We're so glad you're here!

Scan here to get connected:

COZY IN HERE

Yes, yes, we know... it's getting full in the theater! Please fill in every seat to make room for all those coming to church!

COMING UP

TODAY: Child Dedications at 9 & 11
with reception in Beermann
Plaza between gatherings!

We've moved our much-loved
Sunday morning food spread outside today to celebrate the children being dedicated to God today!

09.28: Fall Baptism & Confirmations
3:00-4:30 at the Lesters' home
10.31-11.2: Men's Weekend
Register: scan this

SIGN UP

scan here for all events:

HOME GROUP DISCUSSIONS:

- What motivates you? What has the power to change your plans?
- Read and discuss Mark 6:1-6.
 - This is a story about Jesus' hometown. What value does it hold for us?
- Read and discuss Mark 6:30-44.
 - In both 3:20 and 6:31 the disciples don't even have time to eat. Share a thought about the tension of caring for self and caring for others.
 - How does Jesus' being moved by compassion (v. 34) make you feel?
- Share your thoughts about the contrasts of prejudice, problem, and power exposed in Mark 6.
- How does this chapter inform your answer to the who is Jesus question?