

Gathering #1088/Livestream #308

February 1, 2026

sermon: Peace with Others

Ephesians 4:1–6

Who are we called to be as Christ's church?

What unites us?

The Plan (Matthew 18:15-20)

1.

2..

3.

4.

5.

In conflict:

_____ should initiate

_____ should shape

_____ is meant to protect _____ governs everything

As you go into this week, consider this question:

Where might God be nudging you—not to walk away, not to air it out publicly—but to take one small, faithful step toward peace?

watch/listen to Emmaus sermons:
emmaus.church/sermons, or search:
"emmaus church community" on apple podcasts

Angela Henning 2.1.2026

WELCOME TO EMMAUS

We're so glad you're here!

Scan here to get connected:

NEXT:

Today: New to Emmaus Lunch: 12:30,
Cottage

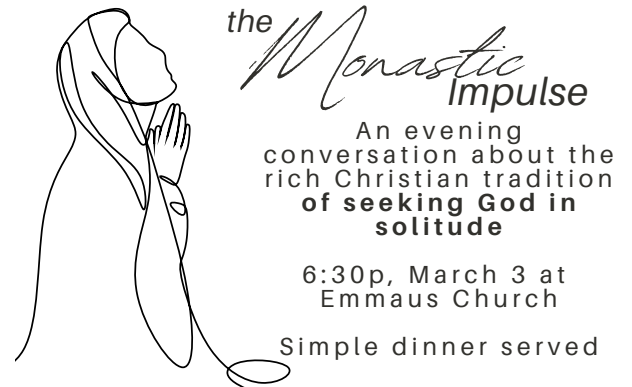

2.15: Annual Community Meeting:
9a & 11a, Theater

2.18: Ash Wednesday: 6:30p, Theater

3,3: "Monastic Impulse" Lent Event:
6:30o Theater

4.3: Good Friday Art in Beermann
Plaza, 5p-8p

4.5: Easter Sunday gatherings
(Theater); food in Beermann Plaza

Featuring Fr. Ryan Jones from IONA House, Rev. Matt Timms from Granite Springs Church, and Nathan Oates

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

- Paul says unity is something already given by the Spirit, not something we create. What do you think it looks like to guard unity rather than manufacture it?
- "Conflict itself isn't bad—but how we handle it matters deeply." Do you agree with this statement? Why or why not?
- When addressing sin with another person, Jesus begins with private, one-on-one conversation. Why do dignity and privacy matter so much in conflict?
- Jesus promises his presence in the work of reconciliation. How does knowing Christ is present change how you approach difficult conversations?
- The sermon said, "Our call is faithfulness, not control." Where do you feel tempted to control outcomes rather than trust obedience?