DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

- Share an opening comment or question about the sermon.
- Verse 47 says, "Her many sins have been forgiven—as her great love has shown." Why do you think forgiveness always comes first, and love/worship is the response? How have you experienced that order in your own life?
- The woman risked judgment, whispers, and rejection to bring her offering. What fears or "side-eye" concerns hold you back from bolder expressions of faith?
- Where in your everyday life (work, family, schedule, conversations) do you sense God inviting you to "interrupt" the ordinary with worship? What might that look like practically?
