

WELCOME TO EMMAUS
Gathering #1123/Livestream #343
October 04, 2026 Sermon: With Me

Rabbi Halberstam in Auschwitz

review:

today:

“Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil,
for you are with me; your rod and your staff,
they comfort me.” - David, Ps. 23:4

2 Surprises

.

.

* invitation:

Presence

* invitation:

2 Perspectives (on the _____)

.

.

* invitation:

Nathan Oates 10.04.26

We're so glad you're here!
Scan here to get connected:

event page->

Starting today:

New Gathering Times: 8:30 & 10:30

Today: Women's Chili and Axes event:
4p at 6855 South Forbes Road.

Oct 18: Emmaus Membership Class &
Lunch: 12:00 in the Cottage

Oct 30-Nov 1: Women's Retreat

car wash fundraiser:

HOME GROUP DISCUSSION:

- What piece of the sermon was most challenging or most helpful?
- When you hear the phrase “the valley of the shadow of death,” what images, feelings, or experiences come to mind?
- Why do you think David’s language becomes more personal in the valley? Have difficult seasons ever changed the way you pray?
- What are some things that feel enormously powerful when their “shadow” falls over us? How might God’s presence change our perception of their power without pretending they aren’t real?
- What valley are you walking through? What shadow are you living under? Are you able to “accept” any of the three “invitations” issued by Nate? Which one(s)?
- Take time to pray for one another.

sign up for events, the e-newsletter, give financially, and more at emmaus.church

watch/listen to Emmaus sermons:
emmaus.church/sermons, or “emmaus church community” on apple podcasts