

Lots of “places;” one “destination”

“Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.”
(Psalm 23:6; NIV 1984)

Two concluding claims:

1.
() goodness

love ()

follow ()

2.
dwell

house

We're so glad you're here!
Scan here to get connected:

event page->

Oct 28: Youth Laser Tag night in the Theater! Note: earlier start time for this event only: 6p-8p. Bring a friend!

THE Foundry car wash fundraiser
50% at Quik Quak
supports our youth center!
$537 raised so far.

HOME GROUP DISCUSSION:

- Looking back over Psalm 23, which image or phrase has become most meaningful to you?
- Psalm 23 begins with “The LORD is my shepherd” and ends with “I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.” What connections do you see between belonging to God and dwelling with God?
- What do you associate with God’s “goodness?” Does your understanding of goodness need to be reconsidered?
- The word translated “follow” suggests something closer to “pursue” or “chase.” How does this change the way you imagine God’s relationship with you?
- What’s habits, distractions, or priorities need to change in order to move from occasionally visiting God’s presence to making your home in God’s presence?
- After spending six weeks with Psalm 23, has anything shifted? What do you hope will be different about the way you live with him?

sign up for events, the e-newsletter,
give financially, and more at
emmaus.church

watch/listen to Emmaus sermons:
emmaus.church/sermons, or “emmaus
church community” on apple podcasts